

Diagram illustrating a 20-layer neural network architecture. The layers are arranged in two rows of 10 layers each. The top row is labeled "pol order" and the bottom row is labeled "pol order". The layers are connected sequentially. The first layer is labeled "batch size". The last layer is labeled "batch size". The activation function for the last layer is "activ. func. = sigmoid".